HEART SPEAKS TO HEART

Psalm 15:2: "Lord, who shall be admitted to your tent and dwell on your holy mountain? He who walks without fault; he who acts with justice and speaks the truth from his heart."

In seeking a an intimate, personal relationship with God and others, be configured by the personal connection forged through authentic friendships, direct influence, and spiritual development in opening your heart completely to that of those around you and to the one whose heart gave all us our breath. It is in Peru, on mission, that you are invited to open your heart to those in material and spiritual need, and allow their hearts to mend and shape yours, just the same.

Reconciling Society through Charity

A FAMILY OF VOLUNTEERS

We believe that the fulfilment of the human person is realised in the encounter of charity. Hoping to create true unity in a society that is divided by diverse circumstances, we seek to facilitate the opportunity to live love. We therefore look to create solutions for the volunteers and the needy in order to make a real difference.

THE WORD MADE FLESH

Humble yourself in service, because He did the same for you

HE CAME TO SERVE NOT TO BE SERVED

The Creator of the universe, of all things visible and invisible, humbled himself down to our level and took on flesh so that He could bear every ounce of our sin and despair that we may be free from sin. This same all powerful man, did it in service. So too, we are called to live greatly in humble service to our neighbors and our Lord. Just as Christ continually lived a life of incarnational and sacrificial love, we too must pick up our cross and serve those in all corners of the earth, with all beliefs, with all pains, with all illnesses, with all sins. We must serve them all, because He would serve us. So too we must follow in His unfailing example.

A BROKEN WORLD, A BROKEN SOCIETY IS HUNGRY FOR RECONCILIATION.

A TIME OF NEED

We live in a world that is broken. We have wars, we have poverty. We have a lot of people that don't care about their neighbors. A broken world, a broken society is hungry for reconciliation. We're thinking on what could help us reconcile those gaps bring things back together.

That's why the image of a bridge came something that can help us connect; not just connect the poor with the rich. But connect people people from different places different backgrounds, that they could find in each other love and support that could help us understand that we're not alone in a broken world in, a broken society the need of a bridge it becomes very tangible

Through our various partnerships, the specific projects we offer share the common goal of reaching out to the human person, in his diverse, unique, and integral reality.

Community Infrastructure Projects in Shantytowns:

We aim to assist the poorest of the poor in helping to make a change in the shantytowns of Lima towards a more dignified way of living. We assist in specific projects such as construction of public staircases, retention walls, parks, community buildings, reparation of chapels and other similar services.

Visits to Schools for Children with Disabilities:

These schools seek to form and rehabilitate children and youth with motor and other physical disabilities. Our visits seek to meet the students in their condition and offer assistance in workshops.

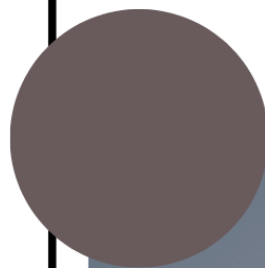

Nursing Homes, Homeless Shelters & Hospital Visits:

These visits seek to offer all types of accompaniment to the elderly and those in Lima who are in most need. We look to attend to essential needs, promoting the integral good of the suffering human person

Solidarity Mission Trips to Peruvian Highlands & Jungle:

Two-week volunteer experiences to assist impoverished communities in the Peruvian Andes and Jungle. Students help in solidarity work, receive talks on social justice and environmental issues, and do eco-tourism to develop environmental awareness, all within the natural beauty of Peru.

Bridges Today offers the opportunity to encounter Christ heartfelt, selfless, challenging service. His people, who ache and cry out for help, yet remain so joyous will be a testament to the comfort and love that He seeks to provide you, when you fully give yourself to Him. It is our hope, that in being the bridge between Him and His people, that you as a volunteer, may ever grow closer to the dynamic and constant love of the Father.

FREELY GIVEN

During the month of May, I was gifted the opportunity to volunteer with Bridges Today, serving low income communities in Lima, Peru. The time spent ministering to the community inspires the way I live my day-to-day life professionally and relationally.

There are far too many takeaways and lessons learned, but the most important has been this: receive the gift freely given. All I had to do was recognize the opportunity before me, say yes, and show up! What gifts are you being given?

SHARE WITH ALL THE WORLD, THE JOY OF CHRIST, IN HIS LOVE
THAT YOU CAN AUTHENTICALLY
BRING TO THEM IN SERVICE

“I have experienced, and still continue to experience, God’s relentless pursuit of my heart. We were all made for relationship with God; this is our purpose. I chose to be a missionary for times like these.”

Focus your heart on the restless and weary heart in front of you, for Christ is present there

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations"
