Insights

Colors

- Soft blues and creams convey calmness, spirituality, and Marian associations.
- Stronger blues feel more energetic and align closely with Pitt's identity.

Brand Name

- Panther Catholic is widely preferred—shorter, more modern, more tied to Pitt's identity.
- Pitt Newman Club seen as traditional but outdated

Font Family

- Elegant and appropriate for a religious or academic club.
- Comic Sans is consistently viewed negatively—too childish, not professional.
- Modern sans-serif alternative that remains friendly.

Vision Statement

- Generally clear, inspiring, and aligned with the club's mission.
- Some feedback suggests simplifying visuals to make it more concise and unique.
- Themes of “light” and “seeking what is above” resonate positively.

Insights

- Emotional Response
 - Cathedral logo evokes calmness, spirituality, and tradition.
 - Panther logo feels bold, energetic, and more connected to Pitt's student culture.
- Color Feedback
 - Soft blue palette is peaceful, trustworthy cohesive across both logos.
 - Colors help the two logos feel like part of the same brand family.
- Visual Focus
 - Eyes go to the monstrance and building silhouette in the Cathedral logo.
 - Eyes go to the highly detailed panther illustration in the second logo.
- Complexity
 - Cathedral logo is simple in a positive, emblem-like way.
 - Panther logo is busier due to the high-detail illustration; contrast in graphic style noted.
- Impression of the Organization
 - Cathedral logo conveys spiritual depth, tradition, and liturgy.
 - Panther logo conveys outreach, approachability, and campus spirit.
- Effectiveness
 - Both logos work for the organization but serve different purposes—formal vs. promotional.
- Design Intentionality
 - Color palette, font choice, and symbolism clearly intentional.
 - Need more intentionality in harmonizing illustration styles and balancing contrast.
- Suggested Improvements
 - Simplify the panther graphic to match the minimalist Cathedral style.
 - Increase contrast in the Cathedral logo to make details stand out more.
